THE REVD. DAN TANSEY PRIEST – Dan has completed his first year of his curacy with us in The Church in the Woottons and he has now been ordained for the second time! This time last year he was ordained deacon at Norwich Cathedral and he is here to be an ordained priest. Dan continues as Curate with us for a further three years but now he is able to conduct every part of a service of Holy Communion and pronounce the absolution (forgiveness of sins) and blessing in the same way that James, Linda and Richard are able too. We offer Dan our congratulations on successfully reaching this very significant stage of his ministry.

NEWS FROM JAMES AND LINDA ABOUT THE RECTORY – The building of the new conservatory is complete. The new conservatory will allow us to offer large-scale hospitality much more easily and we will be less dependent on the good old British climate. We will be able to offer our home for Lent Lunches and Friendship Coffee Mornings as well. Here are two new dates for your diaries and calendars: You are all invited to a Barbeque in the Rectory garden on Friday 14th September from 4.30pm – more details to follow. On Sunday 14th October we invite you to “Lunch on Sunday” after morning church until 2.30pm. We will offer “Lunch on Sunday” on the second Sunday of each month as far as is practical.

CLOSING FOR SUMMER – As usual several things will be closing down in late July until September. The last dates will be as follows:

Monday Church – Monday 23rd July

Woottons Community Choir – Tuesday 17th July

Wednesday Church – Wednesday 18th July

THANK YOU – For all the wonderful food and drink you brought along to the bring and share lunch in the Rectory garden last Sunday. Thank you also to the many people who went along to the Cathedral to support Dan as he was ordained priest. By the way, the preacher at the Ordination Service was the Revd. Canon Ian Bentley – shortly to become our new Archdeacon. Didn't we have a wonderful weekend?
